

An invitation to all citizens interested in the overall look and well-being of Downtown Dillsboro!

The Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs has selected Dillsboro as one of nine communities across the state to participate in Project IMPACT Main Street, partially funded by a grant from USDA Rural Development. The State has contracted with Ball State University to compile and analyze preliminary community data on market strengths and weaknesses that may help identify new business opportunities which the Main Street district could support. Ball State staff will also share observations on the current physical conditions and potential geographic reach based on the Marketplace Profile of Dillsboro.

This is your opportunity to hear and react to the data shared; as well as provide your input on what you believe will help our downtown be successful in the future. We hope to see you at the Dillsboro Town Hall Conference Room, 13030 Executive Drive, Dillsboro 47018 on May 7, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

WHAT IS EARTH DAY?

Ever wondered how Earth Day started? This observance arose from an interest in gathering national support for environmental issues.

In 1970, San Francisco activist John McConnell and Wisconsin Senator Gaylord Nelson separately asked Americans to join in a grassroots demonstration. McConnell chose the spring equinox (March 21, 1970) and Nelson chose April 22.

Millions of people participated, and today, Earth Day continues to be widely celebrated (mostly on April 22).

Common Earth Day activities include planting trees, cleaning up litter, or simply enjoying nature through hiking, gardening, or taking a stroll in a local park.

On Earth Day 2019, enjoy the lovely smell of fresh air, contact with the soil, and companionship with nature! Walk through the woods in search of emerging wildflowers and green moss. Go outside, no matter the weather!

Dillsboro will celebrate Earth Day with yard clean-up.

- * Tree branches and twigs should be bagged/bundled or boxed.
- * Every Thursday is brush and heavy trash pick-up.
- * All refuse must be curbside.
- * For large clean-up call Doug Rump, Town Manager

In addition, for one day only,.....April 18th will be spring leaf pick-up....all leaves must be

As mandated by the U.S. Constitution, our nation gets just one chance each decade to count its population. The U.S. census counts every resident in the United States. It is mandated by Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution and takes place every 10 years. The data collected by the census determine the number of seats each state has in the U.S. House of Representatives (a process called apportionment) and is also used to distribute billions in federal funds to local communities.

The next census in 2020 will require counting an increasingly diverse and growing population of around 330 million people in more than 140 million housing units. To get an accurate count, the Census Bureau must build an accurate address list of every housing unit, maximize self-response to the census, and efficiently follow up with those who do not respond.

'Still Voices and Dandelions: Kitty Schroeder'

April 6-May 25

Kitty is from Little Rock, Arkansas and moved to Cincinnati in the 90's when she was offered a full scholarship to the UC Master of Fine Arts program. She began an inquiry at that time that is culminating in this show that we are honored to host. This will be our first one person show and it promises to be beautiful and moving.

Kitty writes: "In these images I am seeking to explore, question and express ideas about loss, vulnerability and power. I chose missing children as my focus to put parameters on my process. Since 1993 I have collected a stack of blue postcards with their faces, drawing one of them from time to time. I envisioned them as large drawings hanging in a triangular formation, susceptible to the wind. Singular drawings are at the same time specific/symbolic as many others trapped in the continuum; a bridge to present ghosts, adrift in the wind. "

BEING HUMAN: From Portraiture to Concept

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Deadline: Thursday, May 23, 2019

Dillsboro Arts invites any artist to submit artwork that represents being human. Throughout history people have documented humanity; from prehistoric cave paintings to portraits of the Bourgeoisie. We are asking for your interpretation of being human in the modern era.

This show will be juried by Donna Lee Adams. She received her MFA from University of Missouri-Columbia and a Graduate Certificate in Non-Toxic Intaglio Printmaking from R.I.T. She is an associate professor emerita at the University of Indianapolis. Her areas of expertise include photography, printmaking, and fiber arts, which have received several regional and national rewards.

Our prospectus is available at the Friendship Gallery or on our FB page.

Entry Deadline: Thursday, May 23, 2019

Deliver artworks: Thursday, May 23, 4 pm-8pm or Saturday, May 25, 10am-2pm
